

Free Software 0.1

Unlimited edition work for an opening

*This work can be performed without the need for permission from the artist at future venues, as long as the following terms are followed strictly

Materials

1. Microwave oven
2. Stack of blank CD/DVDs (Must have no logo/company name on reverse. Plain white sticker, or unprinted shiny metallic are acceptable)

Microwave should be placed on the floor, or other pre-existing flat surface

Stack of CD/DVDs should be placed beside

Users should place a disc into the microwave and subject it to MAX heat setting

Users are free to document the disc being zapped, or the result of

Users are free to keep this disc

If users upload their documentation to social media, and email a link to this documentation to info@paulkneale.net I will send them a certificate of authenticity for this work, which is completed by this process

These instructions should not be displayed in the gallery

It is the responsibility of the host of the exhibition to communicate this authentication process. They may do this by any means they decide, other than the direct posting of this document

Paul Kneale
10.03.15
London